OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. Global equities posted positive returns in July, with the MSCI All Country World returning 1.6% for the month. In the US, the S&P 500 gained 1.2% after the Consumer Price Index fell to 2.9% in July from 3.0% in June, fueling expectations of a rate cut by the Fed in their September meeting. Economic data appeared mixed with 2Q2024 GDP rising to 2.8% driven by resilient consumer spending, while the labor market cooled down, with nonfarm payrolls decreasing to 114K and the unemployment rate rising to 4.3%. Business activity has also slowed down, with the ISM Manufacturing Index falling to 46.8 from 48.5 in June. On a sector level, 9 of the 11 sectors posted positive results for the month, with communication services and information technology lagged for the period. European equities increased for the month, with the MSCI Europe index returning 2.2% on the back of stable economic data. Eurozone GDP grew by 0.3% in the second quarter, the HCOB Flash Eurozone Composite PMI slightly fell to 50.2 from 50.9 in June, and employment unchanged at 6.4%. Against this backdrop, the European Central Bank left interest rates unchanged with doubt of a rate cut in their September meeting. Japanese markets were negative as the Bank of Japan raised its benchmark interest rate to 0.25% and plans to reduce monthly bond purchases to approximately 3 trillion yen by early 2026 to address yen weakness and support economic growth. Core inflation increased to 2.2% in June, while a tight labor market is expected to drive up wages and boost consumer demand. Emerging market equities increased by 0.3% primarily driven by gains in Europe, Middle East and Africa. In particular, India's upgraded growth forecast bolstered investor sentiment.

Fund Performance. The fund returned 1.09% in July, in line with the benchmark. On a year-to-date basis, the fund gained 21.68%, above the benchmark by 363 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The fund manager will continue to invest in equities of medium to large capitalization companies while integrating Catholic social teachings into the investment process.
