OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The Philippine Stock Exchange Index (PSEi) exhibited a wide swing in April. The index started off strong, reaching as high as 7,000 level to falling to as low as 6,400 mark before ultimately settling at 6,700.49 or down by 2.94% on a month-on-month basis. Risk-off sentiment ensued on the back of the US Federal Reserve's (The Fed) hawkish tone coupled by escalating tensions over in the middle east. On the local space, the headline inflation in March rose to 3.7% from 3.4% in February primarily due to food inflation which registered at 5.6%. Moreover, investors were also wary of the Philippine Peso's depreciation, recording at 57.8 against the US Dollar at one point during the month.

Trading activity slowed during the month, with average daily turnover at US$116 million or 6.5% lower than US$124 million recorded in March. Foreign selling persisted for another month at US$412 million, the highest since September 2023. Property stocks saw the largest outflow while consumer names had some sizable sell-offs. On the other hand, banks continued to see foreign demand while conglomerates exhibited two-way flows. Foreign participation declined to 46% from 50%.

On a per name basis, the top three index gainers for the month include: BPI (+7.96%), ACEN (+7.79%) and MBT (+7.44%). Meanwhile, the bottom three performers were: SMPH (-14.53%), PGOLD (-11.57%) and ALI (-10.85%).

Fund Performance. The fund returned -2.74% in April, outperforming its benchmark by 20 basis points. Year-to-date, the Fund registered a gain of 4.65%, above the benchmark by 77 bps.

Fund Strategy. The Fund will continue to be defensive, but also opportunistic, as volatility could persist given thin market liquidity and inflation risk is still on the upside. The Fund will focus on companies with leading market capitalization and good fundamentals.
