OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. Global equities declined in October, with the MSCI All Country World Index posting a -2.2% return. In the US, the S&P 500 posted a modest decline of 0.9%, influenced by the uncertainty surrounding the upcoming national elections and mixed expectations on the path of policy rates. Inflation saw a slight improvement as the Consumer Price Index (CPI) eased to 2.4% in September from 2.5% in August, fueling hopes for a 25-basis point rate cut in November. US GDP grew at an annualized rate of 2.8% year-on-year in Q3, slightly down from 3.0% year-on-year growth in the 2nd quarter. Labor markets continued to be robust as nonfarm payrolls saw a strong increase with 254,000 jobs added in September compared to 154,000 in August while unemployment declined from 4.2% to 4.1% month-on-month. In Europe, the MSCI Europe Index decreased by 3.2%. The European Central Bank (ECB) cut interest rates by 25 basis points in October, its third quarter-point cut for the year. 3Q GDP slightly improved by 0.4% quarter-on-quarter, however, inflation rose to 2.0% in October from 1.7% in September. This supported the view of ECB President Christine Lagarde that rate cuts should continue to be gradual moving forward. In Japan, equity markets were positive and the TOPIX rose by 1.9% as the country's expansionary policy plans and weaker yen boosted returns. Emerging markets faced headwinds from a stronger US dollar and weaker corporate earnings for the third quarter and the MSCI Emerging Market Index fell by 4.3% for the month. The MSCI World Health Care returned -4.8% for the period. Within the index, all sectors declined over the month. Health care services and medical technology were the bottom performing sectors, while biopharma mid cap and biopharma large cap were the top performing sectors for the month.

Fund Performance. The fund returned -5.22% in October, lagging the benchmark by 40 basis points. Security selection was a driver of relative underperformance. Weak selection in health care services and biopharma mid cap was modestly offset by selection in medical technology. Allocation effect was driven by our overweight to biopharma mid cap and out of benchmark allocation to biopharma small cap, but modestly offset by our underweight to biopharma large cap and overweight to health care services.

Fund Strategy. Groundbreaking innovation, supportive valuations and business models positioned to show resilience through the cycle should benefit the sector over the long-term. Within the biopharma industry, breakthrough innovations continue to provide attractive opportunities. We remain selective in large-cap biopharma, avoiding companies with significant patent expirations and risk of future drug pricing pressure. Outside of biopharma, we believe medical technology innovation has never been stronger due to advancements in technology development, engineering capabilities and integrated informatics. Product cycles, procedure recovery, and biopharma innovation are creating investment opportunities. Within health care services, the fund favors companies focused on the societal challenge on improving patient outcomes while reining in costs. The fund will continue to favor companies that develop innovative products designed to address unmet medical needs. Over the long term, the tailwinds of innovation and an aging population should continue to drive growth for the sector.
